

Pravda Newspaper, January 1945 through April 1945.

Extremely interesting period, culmination of the war in Europe. Each newspaper contains detailed reports from the fronts. Names recently captured German cities and distinguished Red Army commanders, and has inventory of losses inflicted on the German troops. At least 1 photo per issue. Sorry, no choice available - we will select from our inventory at random. All are in very good condition, with light wear to the edges, but well preserved overall. Will be shipped rolled in protective cardboard tube. Size 23" x 32".
