

Excellent Railroad Traffic Controller badge, circa early 1950s.

Brass, enamels. 39.9 mm tall. Late version featuring relatively flat central portion with a less pronounced step from the oval border to the wreath.

Excellent condition. The enamel is perfect including the color dots making the "lenses" of the semaphore and the switch signal. Raised details are intact. Some of the original gold plating on the wreath and the reverse is still present. Includes period screw plate maker marked screw plate of the "Mechanical Stamping Factory, Ministry of Railroad Transportation" (not original to this particular badge).
