"Under the Banner of Lenin, Under the Leadership of Stalin, FORWARD!" Small 1944 Poster.

Sized 10" by 16 1/4". Text on newsprint urges readers: "to destroy German invaders and expel them from the borders of our Motherland."

Very good condition. Designed to be pasted up on any wall where glue could make it stick. We have a few copies, most have a very faint rubber stamp mark on the reverse.

The few "Throw away" posters like this that have survived the decades intact sometimes show up as background "atmosphere" in modern Russian WW II museum dioramas. We saw a similar one in a partisan exhibit in the Moscow Victory Museum recently. Unlike its treatment in 1944, it was now carefully framed! Placing this example under non-glare glass would make it a great atmospheric addition to an "Eastern Front" collection.
