

Classified NKVD map of the Eastern Black Sea including the city of Batumi; dated 1931, the region looked much the same during 1942-1943 when the Red Army was locked in heavy fighting with the Wehrmacht.

30 1/8" x 26". Upper margin trimmed off, perhaps to make it fit better in a map case. Marginal caption makes specific reference to its NKVD origin.

Good looking map in good to very good condition even in spite of the missing margin. Extensive support on the reverse with acid-free archival paper tape
