

National Flag of Kazakh Soviet Socialist Republic, circa 1980s.

In synthetic silk. Measures 180 cm x 90 cm (about 6' by 3').

No factory label, but definitely made during the Soviet era, when Kazakhstan was still a part of the USSR. Excellent condition. Shows storage age only and a couple of very faint spots that are almost unnoticeable. With careful steaming (not direct ironing), the folds should relax and begin to disappear.
