

Badge of a Participant of the Military Parade on the Red Square in Commemoration of the 70th Anniversary of the October Revolution, 1987 issue.

Aluminum, paint; medallion is 36.0 mm wide; the suspension is 38.2 mm wide. An unusual design with oversized suspension representing a red bow worn by the Bolsheviks during the 1917 revolution. The inscription in the white band is "To a Participant of the Military Parade". The reverse of the medallion shows raised inscription "Moscow 7 November 1987". The reverse of the suspension device shows stylized raised logo ФСС ("FSS") of the Experimental Factory of Sports Souvenirs and Badges in Moscow. In excellent condition.

Item# 34722

$30.00

