

Lot of Two Buttons for Army Officer's Tunic, circa early 1900s - 1917.

Measure approx. 22 mm in diameter. Both are in matching good condition. There is minor wear to the high points, but the details of the double-headed eagles are nicely preserved on both. There are no dents or serious dings. The brass shows attractive even toning, no blemishes or significant pitting. The original loops are completely intact and sound.
