

Medal of the Capital Construction Commemoration, 1992.

The medallion is in base metal with antiqued silver finish, 32.5 mm wide. Features the three best known buildings in North Korea. Obverse inscription reads, "Capital Construction". The inscription on the reverse reads "Capital Construction Commemoration Medal". The mount is typical North Korean style with the ribbon crimped and sewn into place on a pin-backed copper plaque.

In excellent condition. The finish is practically pristine on both sides; the details are perfect. The original ribbon is very clean and sound.
