

Badge of a Bus Fare Enforcement Officer, Ministry of Automobile Transportation and Highways, #1598, circa 1950s.

In brass and enamels; 44.1 x 29.5 mm. Very well-made, attractive and massive piece.

In very fine excellent condition. The enamel shows beautiful luster and appears practically perfect to the unaided eye; there are only some minuscule hairlines to the white enamel near the bus that do not threaten the integrity of enamel and a few tiny contact marks. The enamel is completely free of the usual chips or flaking. The characteristically long 15-mm screw post has not been reduced. Comes with a mint-marked screw plate which is of the period and fits perfectly, although it's probably not original to this particular badge.

/Avers 8, page 591, fig. 3066/.
