

Postcard Happy Motherhood, 1956.

The size is continental 6" x 4", postally unused and unmarked. Published by IZOGIZ, Moscow, circulation 200,000 copies. The logo of the publishing house is in the top left-hand corner on the verso. The back is divided. The name of the artist is printed in the lower left-hand corner. The ink stamp in the lower right-hand corner of the verso tells us that the postcard was still unsold at the time of the 1961 money reform and that it was physically in Ukraine as the word "Ціна" (price) is in Ukrainian.

In very good condition. The image itself is without a blemish. The right side of the white "frame" has been cut with scissors, and a little bit unevenly at that. The cut still left some white space so that the frame is still seen as whole. There are microscopic corner bumps and two equally tiny edge bumps (top and left). The verso is mostly clean, showing just minimal shelf wear. The postcard is slightly warped but we are sure this can be flattened out easily, if desired, in storage or on display.
