

Postcard Happy New School Year , 1960.

The size is continental 6" x 4", postally unused and unmarked. The artwork depicts a couple of first-graders being welcomed to school by a bunch of school supplies, the tallest of which are holding a banner saying "Welcome!". The inscription in blue cursive on top reads "Happy new school year!" Published by IZOGIZ, circulation 1,200,000 copies. The back is divided, the artist's name, Yu. Prytkov, is printed in the lower left-hand corner.

In very good condition. The artwork is crisp and clear, the colors and the text bright and vibrant. The corner and edge bumps are barely visible and not at all detractive. The paper is mildly and evenly age-toned. The back is mostly clean, showing just minimal storage wear.
