Kotigoroshko, Porcelain Figurine of Ukrainian Folk Tales Hero, by Polonnoe Factory, 1973-1996.

Stands approx. 7 ¼" tall. Maker marked on the bottom. This version of the logo of the Polonnoe Factory of Artistic Ceramics was in use from 1973 to 1996 (fig. # 368 in Volume One of Marks on Soviet Porcelain, Faience, and Majolica, 1917-1991 by Nasonova et al).

Kotigoroshko's fairy tales character is a tiny pea-sized guy who possesses enormous strength. Armed with a huge mace-like spiked club, his weapon of choice, he fought a dragon to liberate his brothers and sister from the dragon's captivity.

In excellent condition. A tiny strip of lost or missed glaze at the back of the right boot is the only wear visible to the naked eye, Barely noticeable and not in the slightest detractive.

Please note that the penny in our last photo is for size reference.
