

Art Postcard with Painting of Imperial Russian Navy Cruiser 1st Class the Dmitri Donskoy ("Дмитрий Донской"), circa early 1900s.

The size is standard 5 1/2" x 3 1/2", postally unused and unmarked. The caption in the upper left-hand corner of the obverse identifies the warship as the Dmitri Donskoy, cruiser 1st class of the Russian Imperial Navy. The caption is in Russian and French. The card is postally unmarked and unused.

In very good to excellent condition. The obverse shows very light soiling and barely visible traces of two old creases, which are now completely flattened out. One of them is reinforced on the verso with a strip of sturdy paper. All the wear is not intrusive to the eye and not very detractive. The quality of the print is amazing: clear crisp lines and vibrant colors create a beautiful scene of a warship resting peacefully at anchor near the shore.
