

Badge in Commemoration of the 60th Anniversary of the Moscow Higher Border Guards Command School of the KGB, 1992.

Aluminum, paint, lacquer, 48.6 x 30.5 mm. The artwork on the obverse includes the traditional KGB shield and a border marker with the numeral "60". Inscribed on the white band is the abbreviated name of the school МВПККУ ("МВПККУ", i.e. Moscow Order of the Red Banner Higher Border Guards Command School), followed by the honorary title "in the name of the Mossovet (Moscow City Council)". The reverse shows the raised logo of the Experimental and Souvenir Items Factory in the town of Mytishchi, Moscow Region. Excellent condition.

The badge was probably awarded exclusively to the faculty and most distinguished alumni of the school. Although issued a year after the collapse of the Soviet Union, it is still completely Soviet in style.
