

Military Archival Photo of Air Force Major Mikhail Antsupov, 1954.

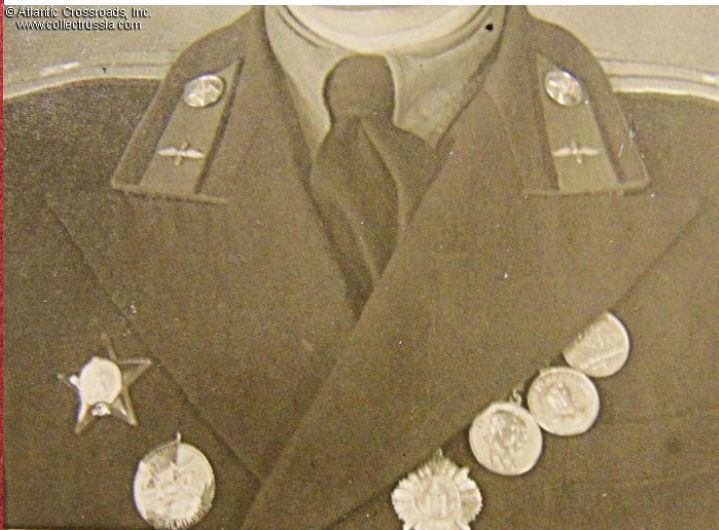

Measures 3 1/84" x 4 3/4", printed on semi-gloss photo paper. In the photo, the officer is wearing an Order of the Red Star, two medals for Victory over Japan - Soviet and Mongolian, the Khalkhin Gol badge, Medal for Combat Service, and the jubilee medal for the 30th anniversary of the Soviet Army and Navy. The archival entry on the verso confirms the identity of Major Mikhail Antsupov. The entry is dated 10 August 1954 and bears the seal of the 57th Air Force Army.

In excellent condition. The image shows just a tiny cluster of dark spots next to the major's jaw, a few individual ones, positioned randomly. Tilting the photo to reflect a bright light reveals a couple of equally small contact marks which are practically invisible when looking at it at a normal viewing angle. The image looks better in reality than through the merciless eye of the lens. The verso is nicely evenly age-toned and perfectly clean, the lettering and seal are crisp and perfectly legible.

Please note that the penny in our photo is for size reference.
