

Postcard Belorussian SSR, from the series The Close-Knit Family of the Peoples of the USSR, 1958.

The size is continental 6" x 4", postally unused and unmarked, published by IZOGIZ, showing their logo in the upper left-hand corner on the verso. Circulation 125,000. The artist's name, I. Shimanskaya, is printed in the lower left-hand corner on the verso.

In excellent condition, no wear visible to the naked eye.

Looking at the artwork, one cannot help admiring the immense strength of the guy who, apparently, managed to fell two huge trees with a scythe.
