

Photo ID of K. Yerofeev, member of the Prigorodnyy District Executive Council, Leningrad Region, 10 September 1930.

In booklet format measuring 2 1/2" x 4". In hard covers wrapped in top-grain leather with embossed lettering on the front, in gold. The lettering reads "Prigorodnyy District Executive Committee of Leningrad, 1st Convocation." The information inside confirms that K. A. Yerofeev is indeed a member of the Prigorodnyy District Executive Committee of the Council of Workers', Peasants' and Red Army Servicemen's Deputies, 1st convocation.

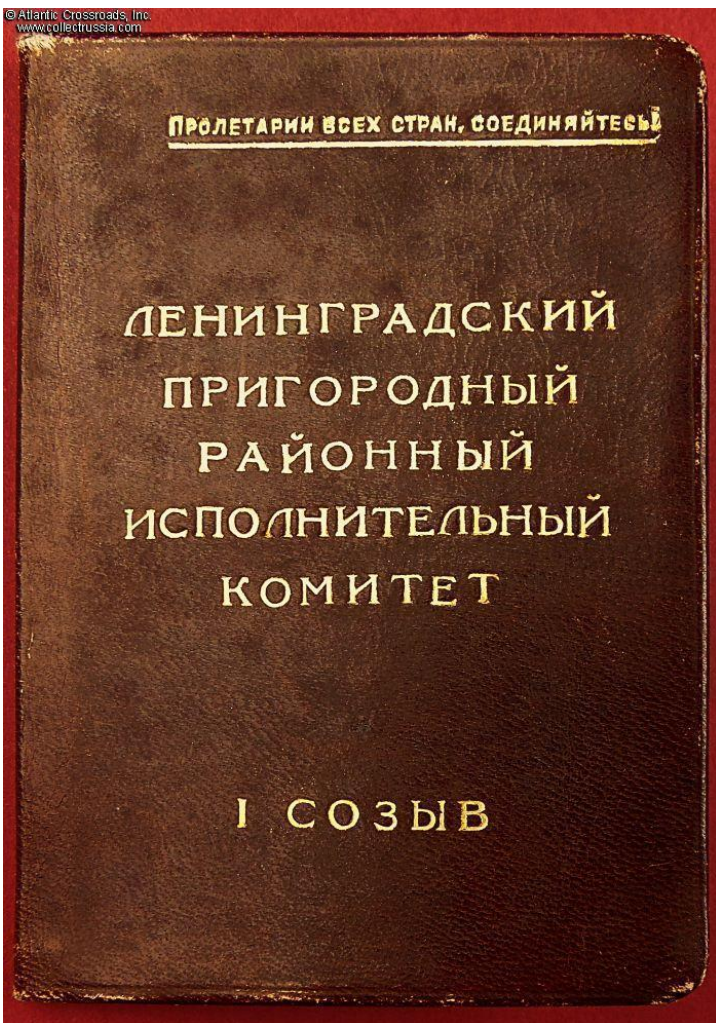

In excellent condition. The gilt of the lettering on the cover is completely intact and retained its original luster. Inside, all the printed and handwritten text, seals, signatures, and ID photo are pristine.

"Prigorodnyy" means "suburban" in Russian, and indeed, this administrative district which existed from 1930 to 1936, surrounded the city of Leningrad, occupying an area of over 967 square miles. Leningrad, being "the cradle of the Revolution", was in the epicenter of Stalin's Great Purge of the late 1930s. Very few of the Party and government officials survived it.

Please note that the penny in our photo is for size reference.
