

Photo ID issued to A. Frolov-Bagreev, member of the Krasnodar Regional Council of Workers' Deputies, 1st convocation, 1939.

In booklet format measuring 3 1/4" x 2 1/4", in hard covers wrapped in genuine leather. The front cover features embossed state emblem of the Russian Soviet Federative Socialist Republic, and the lettering reading "Krasnodar Regional Council of Workers' Deputies." The ID photo is validated by the seal of the Krasnodar Regional Executive Committee of the Council. The certification page states that A. M. Frolov-Bagreev was elected by the Upper Balanskiy electoral district # 13 as deputy to the Krasnodar Regional Council of Workers' Deputies, 1st convocation.

In very good to excellent condition. The leather of the cover shows minor wear to the edges and at the head and foot of the spine, not very obvious or detractive. The embossed emblem and lettering have lost their color but are deeply embossed and easily readable. The ID photo shows a few scuffs to the emulsion - nothing major if you look closely to see that what looks like a scuff on the deputy's chin is actually a goatee. The seal and the printed text and signatures are clear; the handwritten entry, made in blue ink, is somewhat faded but still legible.

Please note that the penny in our photo is for size reference.
