

State Workers' Trade Union, Member ID issued to Adam Demydenko, 4 March 1939.

In booklet format measuring 3" x 4 1/4", in oilcloth-bound covers. The front cover is filled with lettering, reading, top to bottom, "Proletarians of all country, unite!" "Union of Soviet Socialist Republics," and finally, identifies the document: "Trade union of State Workers." The personal information pages duplicate the same information in Russian and Ukrainian languages, stating that Adam Demydenko was born in 1912, was a bookkeeper by profession, and became a member of the Slovechanskiy District section of the trade union on 25 December 1938.

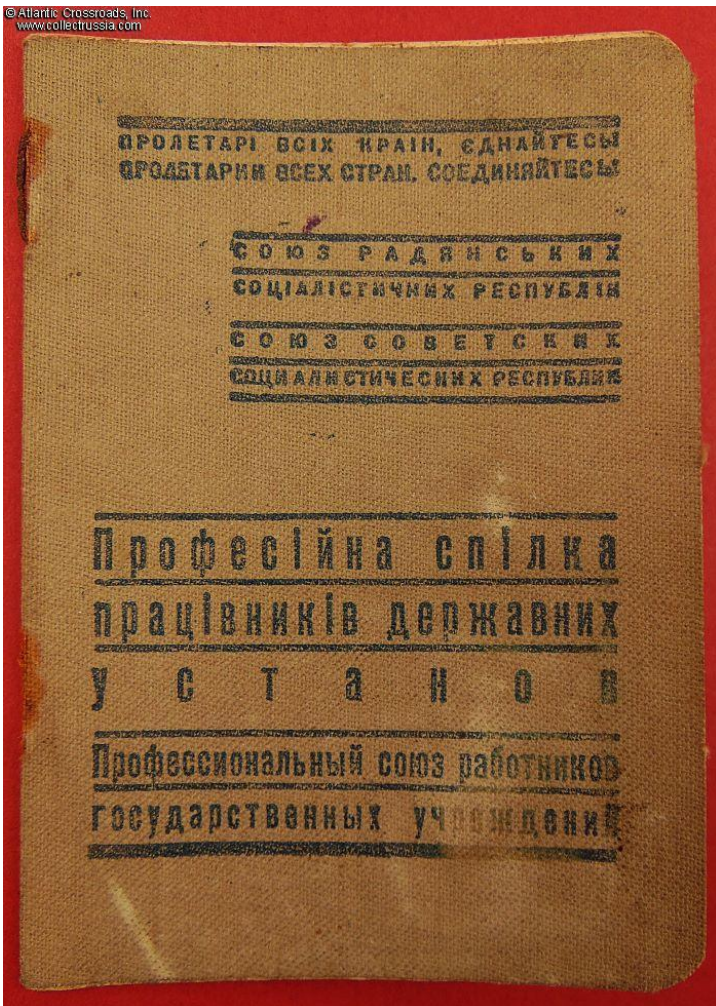

In very good condition. The front cover shows some whitish stains towards the bottom. The back cover has major dark stains. The binding staples are rather rusted; the top staple still holds the booklet together. Both can be easily replaced, if desired, and probably should be. The ID photo, and all printed and handwritten textual material, as well as seals and signatures are crisp, clear, and perfectly legible. Overall, the ID presents quite well, and can make a nice addition to a collection of pre-WW2 Soviet memorabilia.

Please note that the penny in our photo is for size reference.
