

Sweden, Royal Patriotic Society Long & Faithful Service Silver Medal.

In silver, measures 35.8 mm in diameter, weighs 17.9 g including the double link ring. The obverse has a raised inscription "KL SV PATR SALISK". The reverse is engraved with "At KAROLINA AUGUSTA AHLQVIST, for langvarig trogen tjenst." The medal is suspended from a bowtie ribbon, suggesting that it was awarded to a woman.

In excellent condition. The medal is free of excessive tarnish and retains its original luster. The ribbon of the bowtie appears to be original and shows an appropriate level of wear to the reverse. An old-style safety pin is attached to the ribbon.

The Royal Patriotic Society was established in the 1760s. The medal was awarded during the reigns of various Swedish monarchs to recognize individuals for long and faithful service to the Swedish nation, and to charity.
