

East Germany, Document for Medal for Faithful Service in Militarized Organs of the Ministry of Interior.

Presentation folder measuring 6" x 8 1/2" when closed, in leatherette-bound hard cover with the DDR state emblem embossed on the front cover in gold. The cord holding the document is in the colors of the German flag. Inside, the left page shows the emblem of the Ministry of the Interior, embossed in gold. The lettering within the wreath reads "For protection of the power of workers and peasants." The typographically printed text on the award page states that the Council of Ministers of the German Democratic Republic, Ministry of the Interior, is awarding [name] with the Medal for Faithful Service in Militarized Organs of the Ministry of Interior as a token of recognition for faithful and conscientious fulfillment of duty for [number of] years. The award is supposed to be signed by the Minister of the Interior and Chief of German Volkspolizei (People's Police).

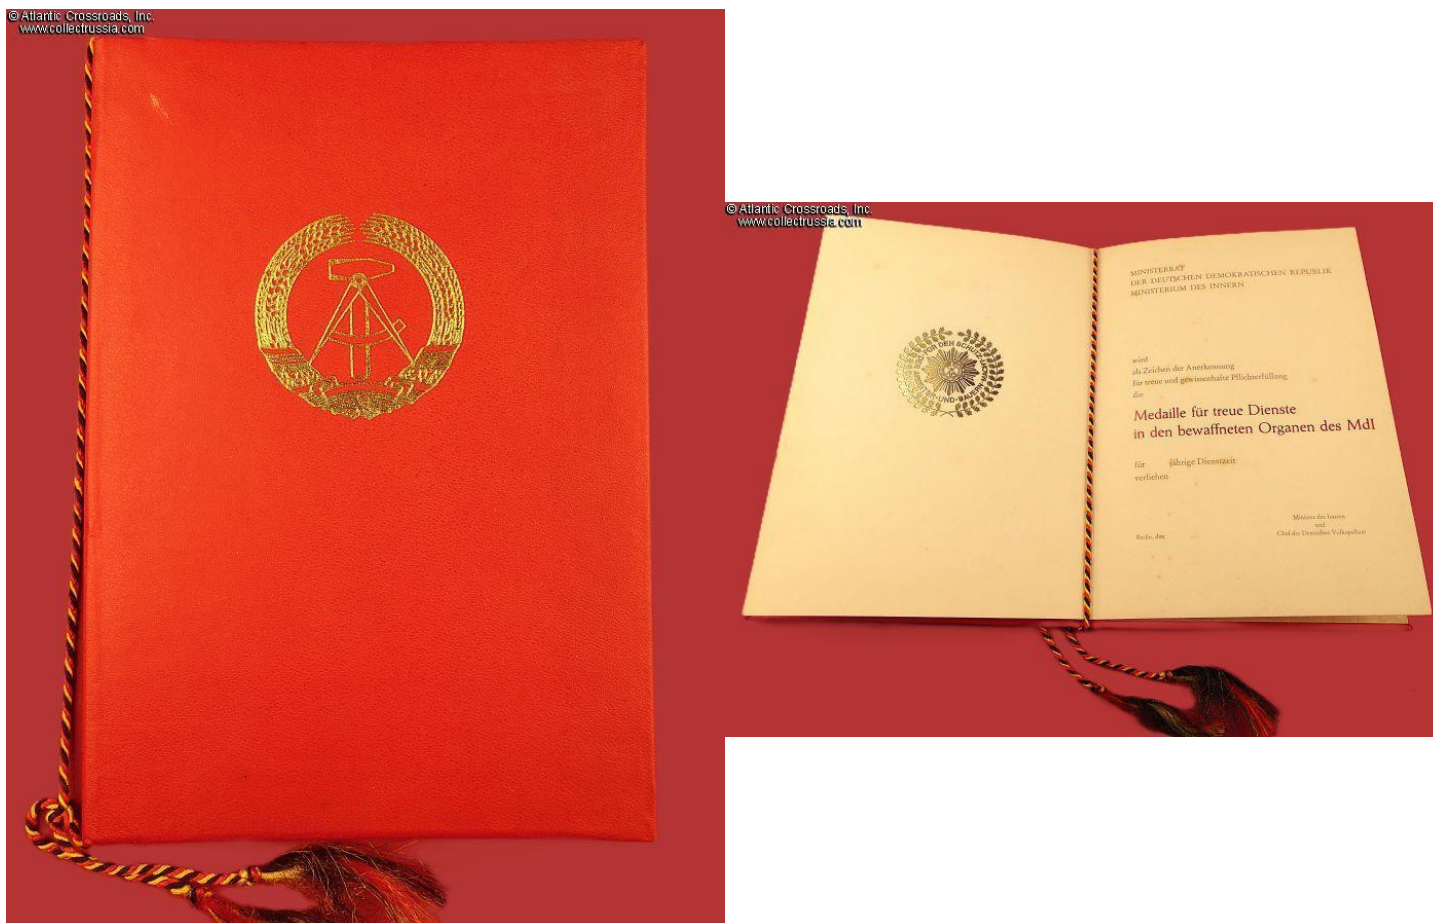

In very good to excellent condition, showing a small scuff near the top left-hand corner of the front cover, and minimal foxing and storage wear to the paper of the document inside.

The Medal for Faithful Service in Militarized Organs of the Interior Ministry ("Medaille für Treue Dienste in den bewaffneten Organen des Ministeriums des Innern") was established on 22 January 1959 in six classes: 5 years service (bronze), 10 years service (silver), 15 years service (gold), 20 years service (gold), 25 years service (gold), and 30 years service (gold.).
