

East Germany, Document for the Medal for Excellence in the Armed Organs of the Ministry of Interior, 1973.

Presentation folder measuring 6" x 8 1/2" when closed, in leatherette-bound hard cover with the DDR state emblem embossed on the front cover in gold. The cord holding the document is in the colors of the German flag. Inside, the left page has a color image of the medal. The award page on the right states that, as a token of recognition of outstanding achievements in the fulfillment of the tasks assigned to the organs of the Ministry of the Interior, the Council of Ministers of the German Democratic Republic awards Chief Constable Siegfried Fischer with the Medal for Excellence in the Armed Organs of the Mdi (Ministry of Interior). The document is dated 1 July 1973 and bears a facsimile signature of the Minister of the Interior and Chief of German Volkspolizei (People's Police).

In very good to excellent condition, showing two small bumps to the front cover, and minimal foxing and storage wear to the paper of the document inside.

The medal (original name "Medaille für ausgezeichnete Leistungen in den bewaffneten Organen des Ministeriums des Innern") was instituted on 4 June 1959, in single class. Awarded for excellent performance of tasks directed at strengthening and consolidation of the DDR.

Please note that the pen in our photo is for size reference.

Item# 47297

$35.00

