

Poster with a Portrait of Friedrich Engels, Pencil Drawing, Artist Signed.

1981.

Very large format, the artwork measuring 17 1/2" x 23 1/2", total size with the margins is approx. 26" x 35". The poster is an offset print of a pencil-drawn portrait of Friedrich Engels by Anatoliy Yar-Kravchenko, a prominent Soviet painter and master of graphic arts known mostly for his portrayal of Soviet and foreign communist leaders. His hand signature is in the lower right-hand corner of the drawing. The poster is printed on glossy high-quality heavy-stock paper. Published by the PLAKAT ("Poster") Publishing House, Moscow, circulation 120,000.

In excellent condition. Two small bumps to the right edge are almost completely lost in the large size of the poster.

Friedrich Engels (1820 - 1895) was a German philosopher, social and political theorist, journalist, businessman, and revolutionary socialist. However, his main claim to fame was his lifelong association with and support of Karl Marx with whom he co-authored The Communist Manifesto (1848) and developed the political and philosophical system that came to be known as Marxism. After Marx's death, Engels served as the editor of his works, completing the second and third volumes of Das Kapital.

Please note that the poster has been stored rolled up and will be shipped rolled up, packaged in a sturdy cardboard tube.

Please note that the 1-ft. ruler in our photo is for size reference.
