

Button for a tunic of an employee of the office of public prosecutor, court, or related law enforcement agency.

In gold plated brass, slightly over 22 mm in diameter. Features raised depiction of a pillar with Imperial crown on top and plaque ■■■■■ ("LAW"), and what looks like an emblem of crossed brush and a ruler behind the pillar. Reverse maker marked "Maksim Kopeykin".

In excellent condition, free of significant wear. The original gilt finish is perfectly preserved and bright. Our photos show a representative example, but all are in the same outstanding condition.

Item# 9777

$25.00

